

2. Reception space with small trees and sculpture/focal point/maypole etc

3. Large meadow for community activities, informal sports, play etc

4. Natural play area

5. Bound gravel footpath around the site

6. Forest school base/community woodland shelter for coppice activities, whittling & carving etc.

7. Species rich diverse and varied woodland habitat with open glades, coppice, characteristic individual trees contrasted with mass groupings, with various layers and colourful Spring flowers.

8. Dotted line pattern represents informal footpaths.

9. Ponds or sustainable drainage features or wet meadow habitat

10. Planting to reflect wet winter ground: willow, alder, field maple, birch with guelder rose, sedges, meadow sweet, loosestrife etc.

11. Willow walkway or hazel tunnel

12. Footpath bisects site

13. Reprofiled ground layers from site excavations, combined with thicker planting extending into the site to reduce vehicular noise and pollution.

14. Potential trim trail and natural logs along pathway for games and play.

15. Potential look out feature: views here to Abberley, Clee Hill and beyond

16. Focal points and sculpture at various positions around the site

17. Picnic area among grove of trees

18. Potential inclusive parking

19. potential future inclusive parking with grass grids among grove of trees.

20

21

Dragonfly Meadow

open ditches

A38 Droitwich Road

Pedestrian access from Droitwich Road

Mixed diverse many layered woodland with open glades coppice, orchard, species rich high woodland and meadows

Mixed diverse woodland with open glades, meadow corridors etc.

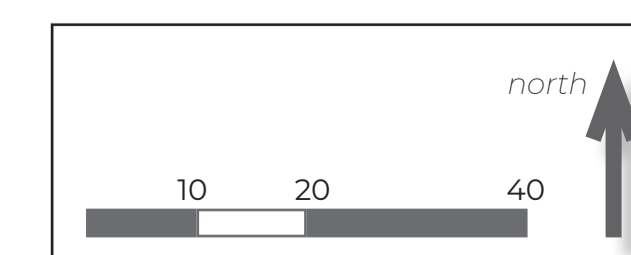

views to Abberley Tower

A public open space providing a variety of natural spaces and habitats for a range of low intensity recreational and amenity uses, that can change over time, appropriate to its location and landscape setting; is accessible to the local and wider community, and provides an educational and environmental resource for current and future generation

A public open space providing a variety of natural spaces and habitats for a range of low intensity recreational and amenity uses, that can change over time, appropriate to its location and landscape setting; is accessible to the local and wider community, and provides an educational and environmental resource for current and future generations.

Draft Masterplan for the Bull Meadows for community engagement

Landscape Architecture School Grounds
Natural Play Community Landscape
www.leavesofgreen.co.uk
The Barn, 36 High Street, Pershore WR10 1DP